

Careggi. Firenze

Sept. 27th 1892

Dear Sir

Accept my best Thanks for the beautiful books which you have so kindly sent me.

I have only had time as yet to dip into them, but I can see that they are full of interesting matter. I shall value them the more as coming as a gift from you.

I regret that the shortness of your stay in this city after my return to it did not allow of my becoming more familiarly acquainted with you; but I had great satisfaction in seeing and speaking to the author of so many learned works.

19454

I await with interest the appearance of your second volume of Machiavelli, which will I trust be completed in the course of next year.

Believe me always to be most sincerely Yours
N. H. Thomson

Sig: Oreste Tommasini.
